Thanks Niall,

That all seems fine regarding the advertisements.

Would you please submit the drawing sooner though?
As it forms part of the application documents rather than the readvertising piece.

Kind regards,
Muirín

Hi Muirín,

Hope you are keeping well. I got your message regarding the hard copy of the revised construction compounds drawing 170239-X-04-X-XXX-DR-DBFL-CE-0292-Construction Compounds - Sheet 3. I was hoping to provide this at the same time as the other documents that will need to be updated when the Statutory Public Consultation dates have been approved.

We are finalising the documentation for the CPO submission, and it is planned to place the advertisements in Thursday the 5th of November's editions of the Dublin Gazette and the Independent for the EIAR advert and just the Dublin Gazette for the CPO notification. We would intend to commence the Statutory Public Consultation period on Friday the 6th of November if this is acceptable to the Coimisiún. This would mean that the Consultation period would run for six weeks, concluding on Friday the 18th of December.

Can you confirm if these dates would be acceptable?

We will have to update one or two other documents that refer to the Consultation dates and issue the hard copies to the Coimisiún at which time we would also include the aforementioned Construction compounds drawing. However, if it is need sooner, I can organise for our Consultants to submit the updated drawing to your offices tomorrow or Friday. Thanks Muirín.

Talk to you soon,

Niall
