Planning and Development Acts 2000 to 2020

Planning Authority: Cork County Council

Planning Register Reference Number: 20/05577

Application for Leave to Appeal against the decision of the planning authority by Caroline Taylor and Daniel Wyse of Church Bay, Crosshavenhill, Crosshaven, County Cork having an interest in land adjoining the land in respect of which Cork County Council decided on the 12th day of January, 2021 to grant subject to conditions permission to Eileen O'Brien and Pat Murphy care of Beamish and Company of Crosshaven, County Cork.

Proposed Development: Construction of an extension consisting of a bedroom, dressing room and shower room at the left hand side of existing dwelling at Church Bay, Crosshavenhill, Crosshaven, County Cork. Revised public notices were received by the planning authority on the 11th day of December, 2020 which included a new wastewater treatment unit.

Decision

REFUSE leave to appeal under section 37 (6) of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, as amended, based on the reasons and considerations set out below.

Matters Considered

In making its decision, the Board had regard to those matters to which, by virtue of the Planning and Development Acts and Regulations made thereunder, it was required to have regard. Such matters included any submissions and observations received by it in accordance with statutory provisions.

Reasons and Considerations

Having regard to the submissions and documents received in connection with the application for leave to appeal and the conditions set out in the planning authority's decision, it is considered that it has not been shown that the development in respect of which a decision to grant permission has been made will differ materially from the development as set out in the application for permission by reason of conditions imposed by the planning authority to which the grant is subject.
