

An Bord
Pleanála

Board Order
ABP-318832-24
(06S.RL.3520)

Planning and Development Acts 2000 to 2022

Planning Authority: South Dublin County Council

Planning Register Reference Number: ED16/0045

WHEREAS a question has arisen as to whether a material change of use at retail Unit number 3, Fonthill Retail Park, Fonthill Road, Dublin arises by reason of the type of goods being sold and consequently whether it is or is not development or is or is not exempted development:

AND WHEREAS PKB Partnership care of GVA Planning of 2nd Floor Seagrave House, 19 to 20 Earlsfort Terrace, Dublin requested a declaration on this question from South Dublin County Council, and the Council issued a declaration on the 2nd day of November, 2016 stating that the matter was development and was not exempted development:

AND WHEREAS PKB Partnership referred this declaration for review to An Bord Pleanála, on the 28th day of November 2016:

AND WHEREAS the judgement by the courts in [2022] IEHC 542 decided the parent permission does not entail a restriction on retail warehouse use equivalent to that now found in the various iterations of the retail planning guidelines that confine the use for the retail sale of bulky goods.

AND WHEREAS, upon remittal from the courts to An Bord Pleanála, the Board considered the reformulated question as to whether the use of a permitted retail warehouse unit to use as a discount store for the sale of small-scale convenience goods at Unit Number 3, Fonthill Retail Park, Fonthill Road, Dublin is or is not development or is or is not exempted development.

AND WHEREAS An Bord Pleanála, in considering this referral, had regard particularly to:

- (a) Section 3(1) of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, as amended,
- (b) Articles 5(1), 9(1) of the Planning and Development Regulations, 2001, as amended,
- (c) Part 4 of Schedule 2 of the Planning and Development Regulations, 2001, as amended,
- (d) the planning history of the site,
- (e) the report of the Inspector, and
- (f) the judgement by the courts.

AND WHEREAS An Bord Pleanála has concluded that:

- (a) the parent permission, planning register reference number S97A/0791 for retail warehousing at Unit number 3, Fonthill Retail Park, Fonthill Road, Dublin encompassed a single planning unit,

- (b) planning register reference number SD15A/0152 was not executed and planning register reference number SD17A/0094/appeal reference number PL06S.248674 for retention permission, comprising inter alia internal alteration consisting of the erection of internal walls and all associated works, was refused,
- (c) the works undertaken to the permitted planning unit, that is, Unit number 3 permitted under planning register reference number S97A/0791, comprising inter alia the construction of internal walls and the provision of new entrance/exit doors on elevations would (i) constitute “works” that are “development” under Section 3 of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, as amended, and (ii) come within the scope of Section 4(1)(h) of that Act, being works for the maintenance, improvement or other alteration of the structure that are internal or, where external, are such as not to be inconsistent with the character of the structure or neighbouring structures, and would therefore be exempted development,
- (d) it is not possible, on the basis of the totality of information on the file, to determine whether the works undertaken to subdivide the permitted planning unit, that is, Unit number 3, into two retail units, that is, Unit number 3 and Unit number 3A, would not give rise to increased traffic movements or any other activity that would have material consequences in terms of the endangerment of public safety by reason of traffic hazard or obstruction of road users as set out in Article 9(1)(a)(iii) of the Planning and Development Regulations, 2001, as amended.
- (e) the subdivision of the permitted retail warehouse unit, that is, Unit number 3 permitted under planning register reference number S97A/079, into two operationally separate retail units (what is currently referred to as Unit number 3 and Unit number 3A) is development and is not exempted development, and

- (f) the consideration of uses therein would be premature pending resolution of the planning status of what is currently referred to as Unit number 3 and Unit number 3A:

NOW THEREFORE An Bord Pleanála, in exercise of the powers conferred on it by Section 5(3)(a) of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, as amended, hereby decides that what is currently referred to as Unit number 3, Fonthill Retail Park, Fonthill Road, Dublin does not constitute a permitted planning unit and consideration of uses therein would therefore be premature at this time.

Eamonn James Kelly
