Proposed Development: Retention of the existing domestic garage in the rear garden and its change of use to a self-contained one-bed/kitchen unit with all associated site development works, all at 43 Hollystown Park, Hollystown, Dublin.

Reasons and Considerations

It is considered that, by reason of its size, detachment from the main dwelling, absence of any private open space provision and permanency, the proposed change of use to a one-bed residential unit would conflict with Objectives DMS019 (New Residential Development) and DMS032 (Infill Development on Corner/Side Garden Sites) of the Fingal County Development Plan 2023-2029 and, as such, would be in material contravention of the zoning objective, would provide for inadequate residential amenity for the proposed residential unit, and would, therefore, be contrary to the proper planning and sustainable development of the area.
