Can you please forward me the current Strategic Housing Development list.

I always downloaded same on the ABP website, but I understand it has been removed from same.

Freagra Substainteach:

The SHD list which had been on the Board's website was removed at the end of March 2025 following queries which brought to the attention of the Board that the list had not been updated. A newly revised list will be on the Board's website by the end of this week. However, in the meantime please see the updated list (as of the 17th of April) attached for your information. An additional column, "Decision Status" has been added and will be updated monthly. We apologise for any inconvenience caused.

Deputy James Geoghegan asked the Minister for Housing, Local Government and Heritage if he will identify any projects which the Department has underway with CeADAR, Ireland's national centre for AI; and if he will make a statement on the matter. [18380/25]

Deputy James Geoghegan asked the Minister for Housing, Local Government and Heritage to identify specific examples where artificial intelligence has been adapted for the operation of his Department and each body under the aegis of his Department; and if he will make a statement on the matter. [12923/25]

Deputy James Geoghegan asked the Minister for Housing, Local Government and Heritage to confirm that for each year between 2020 and 2025 in respect of the boards of bodies under the aegis of his Department, at least one member of the audit and risk committee of that board has recent, relevant financial experience for each of those years; where that is not the case, to identify that body, by reference to the year or years where no such member existed; and if he will make a statement on the matter. [12193/25]

Deputy James Geoghegan asked the Minister for Housing, Local Government and Heritage the number of members of boards in each body under the aegis of his Department who have a professional accounting qualification, for each of the years 2020 to 2025, in tabular form; and if he will make a statement on the matter. [12157/25]

Deputy James Geoghegan asked the Minister for Housing, Local Government and Heritage to identify, by body name and associated skills gap, any skills gaps identified by the chairperson of that board in correspondence to his Department or a Minister in respect of the composition of the board of the body referred, for each year between 2020 and 2025, in tabular form; to identify any body where the chairperson of that board never identified skills gaps to his Department or a Minister, by year and body; and if he will make a statement on the matter. [12175/25]

Freagra Substainteach:

An Bord Pleanála is exploring the use of AI and is therefore working with CeADAR on a potential project. An Bord Pleanála availed of CeADAR's Digital Maturity Assessment & follow-up consultancy service and are currently planning the use case for potentially availing of the AI Solution Design & Build service.

An Bord Pleanála has not adapted artificial intelligence.

The appointment process for members of the Board of An Bord Pleanála is set out in Planning Legislation which changed towards the end of 2022. The focus of the skills set out in this legislation relates to areas of planning which is the primary role of Board members in An Bord Pleanála. The staff of An Bord Pleanála however currently has two qualified accountants. Changes to the overall governing structure of An Bord Pleanála is expected to commence shortly as set out in the Planning and Development Act, 2024 which will see the external appointment of a Governing Board and current Board members becoming Planning Commissioners with no Corporate Governance responsibilities.

As per above, please note that the appointment process of Board members to An Bord Pleanála is set out in the Planning Legislation. The structure is due to change under the Planning and Development Act 2024 with an appointment by the Minister of a separate external governing Board.

I would be obliged if you would let me have in tabular form a list of developments which are pending a decision by An Bord Pleanála where the appeal was lodged on or before the 1st May 2024:

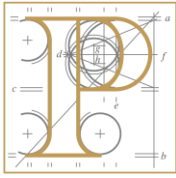

1. The number of appeals where only one singular residential unit is involved.
2. The number of appeals where the number of residential units involved in the one application is between one and 10 residential units.
3. The number of appeals where the number of residential units involved in the one application is between 10 and 25 residential units.

We have reviewed the information requested. Our case management system captures residential information in a number of different ways, and it is difficult to break it down as per your specific request. However, what is attached should hopefully assist you with your query. The data attached is also broken down by year. In summary the figures are as follows: Total number of residential cases lodged on hand (pending decision) prior to 1st May 2024 is 33. Of which 7 have/had legal issues which prevented a decision being made and 9 of which further information of new notices was required which adds additional time to the decision-making process.

Please note the above stats relate to Public Procurement processes and contracts signed in the year mentioned, and the spends relate to the totality of the contracts (exclusive of VAT) agreed from these processes.

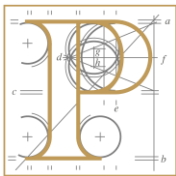

The spend for 2024 is reflective of this, so that figure may increase over lifetime of contracts.

Public Procurements processes relating to legal services are not included in the above figures due to the nature of the drawdown of their services and valuation of contracts.

Request for Information: Plean-IT project

Can you please provide a progress report on the full rolled-out of your promised comprehensive online interactive service and Plean-IT project?

Freagra Substainteach:

As you are aware from previous correspondence there is currently a facility on our website to receive observations/submissions together with the appropriate fee in relation to all cases received by the Commission.

Expanding on this service, the facility to allow online appeals together with a fee is now at an advanced stage with an expectation of a 'live pilot' towards the end of September 2025. In February 2024 we appointed a Director of Transformation and Digital Services and this has facilitated the progress in relation to this together with other initiatives in terms of facilitating increased access to more information on line in relation to documentation. We have been working with the Office of the Government Chief Information Office (OGCIO) to leverage the government's shared services' IT platform to develop the 'on-line' platform for appeals.

As previously indicated there are currently challenges with the legislation in terms of receipt of 'electronic appeals' however we have been separately working with the Department of Housing, to develop a statutory Instrument to legally facilitate the receipt of on line appeals. This is also at an advanced stage in terms of finalising the necessary wording of the instrument.
