Re: A proposed development comprising the taking of a 'relevant action' only within the meaning of Section 34C of the Planning and Development Act 2000, as amended, which relates to the night-time use of the runway system at Dublin Airport
Dublin Airport, Co. Dublin

Dear Sir / Madam,

I have been asked by An Bord Pleanála to refer to the request for an oral hearing of this case.

The Board has considered the request and in accordance with section 134(3) of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, (as amended), it has decided to determine the case without an oral hearing. The Board has concluded that the case can be dealt with adequately through written procedures.

Please be advised that a response to the Board's notice which issued under Section 132 of the 2000 Act has been received from the applicant. The further information contained in this response will be made available and all participants will be afforded a period of time to make submissions/observations on it. A further communication advising you of these details will issue shortly.

Dublin Airport, Co. Dublin

Dear Sir / Madam,

I have been asked by An Bord Pleanála to refer to the request for an oral hearing of this case.

The Board has considered the request and in accordance with section 134(3) of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, (as amended), it has decided to determine the case without an oral hearing. The Board has concluded that the case can be dealt with adequately through written procedures.

Please be advised that a response to the Board's notice which issued under Section 132 of the 2000 Act has been received from the applicant. The further information contained in this response will be made available and all participants will be afforded a period of time to make submissions/observations on it. A further communication advising you of these details will issue shortly.

I have been asked by An Bord Pleanála to refer to the request for an oral hearing of this case.

The Board has considered the request and in accordance with section 134(3) of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, (as amended), it has decided to determine the case without an oral hearing. The Board has concluded that the case can be dealt with adequately through written procedures.

Please be advised that a response to the Board's notice which issued under Section 132 of the 2000 Act has been received from the applicant. The further information contained in this response will be made available and all participants will be afforded a period of time to make submissions/observations on it. A further communication advising you of these details will issue shortly.

Yours faithfully,

Dublin Airport, Co. Dublin

Dear Sir / Madam,

I have been asked by An Bord Pleanála to refer to the request for an oral hearing of this case.

The Board has considered the request and in accordance with section 134(3) of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, (as amended), it has decided to determine the case without an oral hearing. The Board has concluded that the case can be dealt with adequately through written procedures.

Please be advised that a response to the Board's notice which issued under Section 132 of the 2000 Act has been received from the applicant. The further information contained in this response will be made available and all participants will be afforded a period of time to make submissions/observations on it. A further communication advising you of these details will issue shortly.

I have been asked by An Bord Pleanála to refer to the request for an oral hearing of this case.

The Board has considered the request and in accordance with section 134(3) of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, (as amended), it has decided to determine the case without an oral hearing. The Board has concluded that the case can be dealt with adequately through written procedures.

Please be advised that a response to the Board's notice which issued under Section 132 of the 2000 Act has been received from the applicant. The further information contained in this response will be made available and all participants will be afforded a period of time to make submissions/observations on it. A further communication advising you of these details will issue shortly.

Yours faithfully,

Re: A proposed development comprising the taking of a 'relevant action' only within the meaning of Section 34C of the Planning and Development Act 2000, as amended, which relates to the night-time use of the runway system at Dublin Airport
Dublin Airport, Co. Dublin

Dear Sir / Madam,

I have been asked by An Bord Pleanála to refer to the request for an oral hearing of this case.

The Board has considered the request and in accordance with section 134(3) of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, (as amended), it has decided to determine the case without an oral hearing. The Board has concluded that the case can be dealt with adequately through written procedures.

Please be advised that a response to the Board's notice which issued under Section 132 of the 2000 Act has been received from the applicant. The further information contained in this response will be made available and all participants will be afforded a period of time to make submissions/observations on it. A further communication advising you of these details will issue shortly.

Yours faithfully,
