RE: Runway at St. Margaret's, Co. Dublin

Dear Sir/Madam,

Mary Madigan is my name, I live in Killeek, St. Margaret's Co. Dublin along with my husband Rory.

I would just like to highlight the huge changes that have taken place recently with the opening of the new runway.

1. The increase in air traffic volume and the level of plane landing.
2. I no longer can leave the windows open, and it is impossible to sit out in the garden.
3. We have lived here for over 50 years, the Airport is our neighbour, and we fully understand that change must take place, but at what cost to human life.
4. My husband Rory is bed-bound, and of late he is finding it increasingly difficult to get a decent sleep.

I would very much appreciate your time to consider our letter in relation to the huge changes that have taken place recently. I fully understand that perhaps, I am only one person who has been greatly impacted by the changes. However, there is a human element to this progression and I think, not only would it be respectful of you to hear the people of St. Margaret's, but it would be the decent thing to do, and come and meet with us and hear our story.

Thank you for your time and I look forward to meeting with you.
