Dear Fingal County Council,

Please accept my objection to the night flights planned for Dublin Airport. I am living in Brookfield Malahide and my young family and I will be seriously disrupted by the noise of night flights in and out of Dublin Airport. Other major city airports do not allow night flights for this reason and I think this is reasonable position for Dublin to take considering it is such a populated area and will negatively impact many households who have no option but to live in the flight path.

Kind regards,
Edel
