Hi

I wish to strongly object to proposal to allow night flights between 11pm and 7am at Dublin airport.

Having returned to reside in Portmarnock three years ago after being away for 20 years I am already distressed at the not only the volume of flights but the fact that at approx. 6.20am the noisiest plane on the planet flies directly over my shuddering apartment.

The situation is severe enough already and any allowance for further 'night flights' will have a considerable impact on the physical and thus mental health of all residents that are already suffering.
