Dear Sirs

We are the owners of [REDACTED] The Crescent, Dun Si, St Marnocks Bay, Portmarnock.

We are writing to you to object to recent proposals brought forward relating to flight times relating to the new runway at Dublin Airport. We were shocked to read that proposals were being brought forward relating to flights between the hours of 11pm and 6am. We live directly under a flight path and acquired our house in the knowledge of that. However, we certainly did not consider that we would be faced with overhead flights and the accompanying disruption this causes to both our own and our children's sleep patterns.

We strongly and vehemently request that this proposal is not accepted as I would have serious concerns of the impact it will have on both my family's standard of life and the value of our home. This should be not be accepted and we are appalled that it is even being tabled.

Kind regards

Gavin Fitzgerald
