To whom it may concern,

I wish to object on behalf of Fleming Family of 168 Ardilaun, Portmarnock to the assertion that those objecting to unilateral action taken by DAA in varying the current regulatory and times extensions that don't realise we live in close proximity to the airport.

We have lived here for 43 years without any difficulty ⁱⁿ accepting the airport. My wife has a diagnosis of advancing dementia which has been aggravated unnecessarily by the noise in increased flights. The other members of family are acutely aware of the nuisance of increased flights) and flight times.

We are not satisfied that sufficient examination has been taken to establish the impact on our health from increased fuel and noise pollution. The DAA cannot be rewarded for tearing up the rules ^{by} introducing what are illegal variations to the flight time ^{current} variations. Regulations

Regards,

Eric Fleming
