The entrance to Lissenfield is currently subject to a temporary CPO. There is a notable absence of information concerning this Order.

What exactly does temporary mean in this instance, why is it necessary and how long will this be for?

Lissenfield has only one entrance so this will cause huge disruption to residents.

There is mention of the entrance to Lissenfield being used as a turning area for traffic on Lower Rathmines Road. I suggest BlackBerry Lane is a more suitable location for this turning point.
