Re: Kathleen Connelly v An Bord Pleanála
(ABP-305972-19 previously PL03.239378)
Date: 22nd November 2019

An Bord Pleanála's decision of the 6th June, 2014 on appeal file reference no. PL03.239378 has been quashed by the Supreme Court and remitted back to the Board for a fresh determination. A copy of the perfected Court Order and Judgement is attached to this memorandum.

A new file no. ABP305972-19 has been assigned and ICT has been informed.

A new file cover has been inserted over the old file cover (thereby maintaining the old file cover as a record)

The Perfected Order dated the 29th August, 2018 states that the said appeal be remitted back to the Board to be determined in accordance with law as interpreted in the Judgement of the Supreme Court.

The reactivated file is now submitted to the Board in accordance with the terms of the Court Order.

N.B.

When this file is finally determined, file to be sent to Legal Affairs Section for consideration for the replacement of documentation which has been removed from file to be filed in chronological sequence on file.
