To whom it may concern

I have previously objected to the building of the Greater Dublin Drainage Project before with planning authority and again I would like you to know I still object for the following reasons:

- impact on traffic in the area
- potential for a large-scale disaster if there is an explosion or leak
- location of the facility given we already have pollution from the flight path
- smell pollution in the hotter months like in other areas not able to enjoy the outdoor space of properties.
- impact on health for those with breathing conditions etc being exposed to gas emissions daily
- impact on property prices in the area

Kind regards

Samantha Brown
