Hi Hazel

It is not necessary to inform the Board of your withdrawal. We have already received your withdrawal request, and this has been processed accordingly. The Inspector has been made aware of this.

Kind regards

Eimear

Further to the below, we agreed with TII that we would notify both the Inspector and separately, ABP of our withdrawal.

You might please confirm the best email/ address to notify ABP in relation to this so as we are not cutting across the two.

Kind regards
Hazel

RE:

ABP-314724-22 Railway (MetroLink – Estuary to Charlemont via Dublin Airport)
Order Application (the "Application")

Dear Colleagues

We refer to the above matter and previous correspondence.

We confirm that an agreement has been reached between Mouna, FryLite (Dublin) Limited and the National Roads Authority (Operating as Transport for Infrastructure Ireland) ("TII") in relation to the Application.

Our client has no objection to the Application on environmental or other grounds or to the proposed acquisition of part of our client's lands subject to the agreed mitigation measures being implemented.

Our client remains supportive of the Metrolink project, and we thank you for facilitating us throughout the Metrolink submissions and oral hearing process.

Yours faithfully
