To whom it concerns,

I, Michelle mcGrath am contesting this application on the Grounds that one of the applicants named: Gerard/Gerry Tighe does not fully own the parcel of land Folio No 62976F as its part of an ongoing litigation as a Matrimonial asset, in Alberta, Canada

Please find letter to Gerard/gerry Tighes lawyer Nguyen Barrister and Solicitor D.N. Law via email dated 05th February 2024 GMT, as part of ongoing divorce proceedings in Canada.

The consent letter which Gerard/Gerry Tighe signed was not truthful.

I will be seeking legal advice on this matter as quickly as possible.

Kind regards
Michelle mcGrath

Letter to David Nguyen from Michelle mcGrath via email dated 05th February 2024

WITHOUT PREJUDICE

05th February 2024

TO: Nguyen Barrister and Solicitor D.N. Law via email

Hi David,

I refer to the following offer sent to me in June 2023 by your client Gerard Tighe.

RE: Offer from Gerard Tighe via Mr. Nguyen. Offer on email from Mr Nguyen to Michelle mcGrath dated: June 2023. Offer details are as follows:

1. The Full Sale Proceeds of the Airdrie Home of approximately two-hundred thousand ($200,000.00) CAD to be immediately transferred in full to Michelle McGrath by direct deposit/wire into Michelle McGrath's bank account or other specified manner
2. Ms. McGrath retains any and all of the interest and benefits in her Pension in full
3. Any and all costs award against Michelle McGrath are hereby waived with respect to Mr. Gerry Tighe
4. Mr. Tighe retains his Irish and Canadian Pensions
5. Mr. Tighe retains the land in Ireland and discontinuance of support

As you are aware I, Michelle mcGrath and your client Gerard (Gerry) Tighe were married in 2003 in Ireland, cohabited for 7 years before marriage and have 4 children of the marriage.

As I have confirmed in my email, I am very motivated to proceed with finalising this divorce however as per my email to you in June 2023, we require a copy of your clients financial disclose, to proceed with the separation of matrimonial assets as your client fails to provide financial disclosure as requested by the Queen's bench Calgary since court proceedings began in 2018.

1. The offer of settlement of the proceeds of the family home in Airdrie, Alberta, this is in trust as directed by the courts with Hassett and Reid Lawyers and will be offset against the arrears that your client owes as per our Court Order signed by Justice Sullivan. refused to pay child support for his 4 boys of the marriage and is in substantial arrears of 200,000 cad. Therefore, the current proceeds of the home because of the substantial debt of arrears for child support and spousal support that your client has accrued since 2018, will be offset against his child support arrears to date therefore this offer by your client Gerard/Gerry Tighe is not an offer!
2. Gerards (Gerrys) Irish and Canadian pension will be part of division of matrimonial assets as set out by the court.
3. The request by your client for discontinuance of his obligation to financially support his children, is disappointing. Gerard (Gerry) will no doubt ease the burden on him by Maintenance Enforcement Alberta, which Gerard has many actions against him for his refusal to pay child support in Alberta, the latest being A) Motor Vehicle restriction, B) Federal Licence Denial and C)Credit Bureau Reporting, despite these serious enforcements, he continues to ignore his parental financial obligations to his 4 children while he holidays in Ireland for 6 weeks in a 7-month timeframe, showing ample financial amenities despite not paying a cent to his children, not even a Birthday or Christmas card. Which
4. The offer (which I have refused) is based on Gerry Tighes request to retain the land in Mayo, Ireland, Land Registry Folio No 62976F thus removing this asset from ongoing litigation regarding Matrimonial property. This land is matrimonial property as described in File No: 4801•178403 in court proceedings in Calgary and must be divided as part of Divorce Act. During our marriage, I have requested in court that this land be held in trust for our 4 sons as part of the division of matrimonial property.
Your client Gerard/Gerry Tighe without my knowledge has applied for 10-year planning permission for a wind energy development consisting of 22 wind turbines and all associated infrastructure, under the Company Name: Glenora Wind Farm DAC. Logged on 14th December 2023. He has signed the attached document knowingly: that this parcel of land in question is part of court and divorce proceeding in Calgary which is against the law.

The timing of Gerard Tighes offers of settlement knowingly applying for planning, displays ample intent to yet again, ignore court proceedings and to intently ignore the rules set out by the courts in Calgary, which sadly is his pattern of behaviour since 2018.

I am currently seeking Legal Guidance here in Ireland on this matter and will inform you very soon regarding legal proceedings.

Kind regards

Michelle mcGrath
