Dear Sir / Madam,

An order has been made by An Bord Pleanála determining the above-mentioned case. A copy of the order is enclosed.

Please be advised that in accordance with the provisions of section 37H(4) of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, as amended, a grant of permission under section 37G shall not become operative until payment by the applicant of a sum in respect of costs has been complied with.

Furthermore, section 37H(5) states that where an applicant for permission fails to pay a sum in respect of costs in accordance with a requirement made under subsection 2(c) the Board, the authority or any person concerned (as may be appropriate) may recover the sum as a simple contract debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

In accordance with section 146(5) of the Planning and Development Act 2000, as amended, the Board will make available for inspection and purchase at its offices the documents relating to the decision within 3 working days following its decision. In addition, the Board will also make available the Inspector's Report and the Board Direction on the decision on its website (www.pleanala.ie). This information is normally made available on the list of decided cases on the website on the Wednesday following the week in which the decision is made.

The attachment contains information in relation to challenges to the validity of a decision of An Bord Pleanála under the provisions of the Planning and Development Act 2000, as amended.

Dear Sir / Madam,

An order has been made by An Bord Pleanála determining the above-mentioned case. A copy of the order is enclosed.

Please be advised that in accordance with the provisions of section 37H(4) of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, as amended, a grant of permission under section 37G shall not become operative until payment by the applicant of a sum in respect of costs has been complied with.

Furthermore, section 37H(5) states that where an applicant for permission fails to pay a sum in respect of costs in accordance with a requirement made under subsection 2(c) the Board, the authority or any person concerned (as may be appropriate) may recover the sum as a simple contract debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

In accordance with section 146(5) of the Planning and Development Act 2000, as amended, the Board will make available for inspection and purchase at its offices the documents relating to the decision within 3 working days following its decision. In addition, the Board will also make available the Inspector's Report and the Board Direction on the decision on its website (www.pleanala.ie). This information is normally made available on the list of decided cases on the website on the Wednesday following the week in which the decision is made.
