I wish to submit my observation in favour of Hudson Bros Ltd planning permission.

As a small, limited company Hudson Brothers have always supported my company and a significant number of other local companies and business. Huson Brothers have always used / supported local businesses where possible since they commenced operation and I know myself and all other business owners have always appreciated this support.

Not only do they provide a significant amount of direct employment, but they have also provided / supported significant amount of indirect employment through contractors, suppliers, and consultancies such as my own organisation.

Also, the impact they have on the local economy in general through employees contributing to the local economy through supporting local retailers and hospitality providers. This is through their families living and using local retailers, employees using local retailers and shops for their lunches etc.

5. Grounds

In summary, Hudson Brothers is not only important to their organisation but to the local economy and employment locally.

Regards

Jacinta McCabe
