Dear Sirs

We refer to yours of the 26th September and wherein you provided us with a disc containing electronic documents and wherein you invited comment on the documents thereon. Having looked at the documents on the disc, the documents principally consisted of a series of maps; all of which we had previously seen; albeit a couple had apparently been slightly amended.

This doesn't make any substantive or material difference to the application or to the submissions already made. Therefore we again refer you to our earlier submissions. There has been a long history of unauthorised developments at this quarry; exceptional circumstances cannot reasonably be pleaded. This application should be declined.

Yours sincerely,

Kieran Cummins,
