Re: Construction of an Effluent Balancing and Resource Recovery Plant with all associated site works. The development comprises of an Industrial Emissions Discharge license. An EIAR was submitted with the application
Dundalk Science and Technology Park, in the townland of Haynestown, Mullagharlin, Dundalk, Co. Louth, A91 X56F

Dear Sir / Madam,

I have been asked by the Commission to refer to the above-mentioned appeal.

The Commission is of the opinion that the proposed development, the subject of the appeal, may have an effect on water resources.

Having regard to article 28(1)(y) of the Planning and Development Regulations 2001 to 2018, (as amended), the Commission is of the opinion that it is appropriate in the interests of justice to request you to make submissions or observations to it.

In accordance with section 131 of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, (as amended), you are requested to make any submissions or observations you have in relation to the appeal in the context of the matter referred to in the above-mentioned article. The Commission cannot consider submissions or observations that are outside the scope of that matter. Your submission in response to this notice must be received by the Commission not later than 5.30 p.m. on 26th of November 2025.

If no submissions or observations are received before the end of the specified period, the Commission will proceed to determine the appeal without further notice to you, in accordance with section 133 of the 2000 Act, (as amended).

I enclose for your information a copy of the decision order of the planning authority on the application and a copy of the site location map. The planning application, along with other documents relating to the planning authority decision and copies of the appeal(s) made to the Commission are available for inspection at the offices of the planning authority in accordance with section 38 of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, (as amended), and article 68 of the Planning and Development Regulations 2001.
