Re: Proposed development of 11 wind turbines and ancillary development within the townlands of Ballynamullagh, Kilmurry, Coolree, Killyon, Mulgeeth and Drehid, County Kildare (www.drehidwindfarmSID.ie)

Dear Sir / Madam,

I refer to the additional information received by the Commission in relation to the likely effects on the environment of the above-mentioned proposed development. Please be advised that the Commission considers that this additional information contains significant additional data in relation to the effects on the environment of the proposed development and it therefore requires you in accordance with section 2(b) of 37F of the Planning and Development Act 2000, as amended, to:

(a) publish in one or more newspapers circulating in the area in which the proposed development would take place a notice stating that significant additional information in relation to the said effects has been furnished to the Commission, that the additional information will be available, for inspection or for purchase (upon payment of a specified fee not exceeding the reasonable cost of making a copy), at a specified place and at specified times during a specified period, and that submissions or observations in relation to the additional information may be made in writing to the Commission before a specified date (which shall not be less than 30 days), and update the stand-alone website stating that the additional information can be downloaded, and

(b) send notice of the furnishing to the Commission of significant additional information and a copy of the additional information, to the planning authority and to the prescribed bodies stating that submissions or observations in relation to the additional information may be made in writing to the Commission before a specified date (which shall not be less than 30 days).

Please note that the provisions of section 251 of the Planning and Development Act 2000 relating to the holiday period between the 24th December and 1st January, both days inclusive, must be taken into account in the calculation of the final date for submissions on your public notices.

Having regard to the above a sample public notice is enclosed for your convenience. You are requested to revert to the Commission with a draft public notice prior to publication, for approval.

The Commission requires that, in relation to the above, you place on the dedicated website an identical copy of the significant information as submitted to the Commission. This should be clearly identified as the significant additional information which was submitted to the Commission on the 28th October 2026.

In respect of (a) above the notices should be published in the same newspapers in which notices of the original application was advertised and the additional information should be made available for inspection or purchase at the same locations at which the original application documentation was available. The Commission would also request that site notices be erected in this regard.

You should submit the relevant newspaper notices and a copy of any prescribed body notices issued under (b) above to the Commission as soon as same are available.

Your response to this letter should be received not later than the 16th December 2026.

Finally, please ensure that the relevant planning authority (in this case, Kildare County Council) is furnished with a sufficient number of copies of the significant additional information as they will also be required to provide the said information for public inspection.

Please be advised that the Commission will forward to you a copy of any submission(s) received in relation to significant information.

If you have any queries in relation to the matter, please contact the undersigned officer of the Commission.

Please quote the above-mentioned An Coimisiún Pleanála reference number in any correspondence or telephone contact with the Commission.

Yours faithfully,

L. Murphy
