Case:

Planning Authority - Westmeath County Council

Reference: JP25M.322958

Location: Athlone, Co. Westmeath.
 Crescent Junction to Southern Station Road.

I am appealing against planning permission for this case for the following reasons.

- Existing road is sufficient in providing access.
- The field along station road is swamp land and not suitable for a road.
- Wildlife live here, there are numerous fox, duck, bird and other animals using this field for nesting.
- New road is too close to existing housing and dangerously ~~close~~ adjacent to property line.
- ~~Trees~~ ^{Trees} currently provide shade and removing them ~~would~~ would open up to more noise and light pollution.
- New road would decrease property value of houses due to removal of secluded, peaceful cul de sac.
