RE: No. 20 Church Street, Dungarvan, Co. Waterford.

Dear Mr. Grimes,

We enclose copy letter dated 19th May 2025, issued by your Council and write to confirm that the Addressee wishes to object to the proposed acquisition of the property therein referred.

In this context we are now enclosing the following: -

1. Copy of our letter to you council dated 7th December 2023;
2. Copy Submission made to your council on 13th December 2023;
3. Copy of our letter to your council dated 13th December 2023;
4. Copy of your council's letter dated 20th January 2025 to Maher Claire Dalton;

Our clients wish to confirm and re-assert the objections set forth in the enclosed documentation and in addition wish to make the following further submissions.

5. It is denied that the classification of the property in question as being derelict was made in accordance with law in manner alleged or at all.
6. It is denied that circumstances ever existed such as lawfully entitled your authority to designate the property as being derelict.
7. It is denied that the property is now derelict or that circumstances exist which would render the property capable of being so designated.
8. The subject property is and has at all material times been serviced by utilities and has at all times material been occupied.
9. The property is fully heated.

Without prejudice of the foregoing, it is submitted that since the purported designation as derelict the Revenue Commissioners have been paid the appropriate charges leviable on such property thereby rendering nugatory the designation claimed to have been lawfully made.

It is submitted that by virtue of your council's acceptance of commercial rates your council is now estopped by law from seeking to have a compulsory purchase order made in respect of said property.

Our clients reserve the right to make further submissions in respect of this matter following receipt of information now sought from your council under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act.

We would now ask you to acknowledge safe receipt of this submission.

Yours faithfully,
JOSEPH P. GORDON & CO.
