Kevin,

We wish to advise that Clare County Council only envisages one pre-application consultation meeting with An Coimisiún Pleanála, and that the Council intends to incorporate any feedback received at that meeting into the finalisation of the scheme planning documentation and to submit the application to An Coimisiún at the earliest opportunity thereafter. As such, unless any matters of significant concern are raised during the consultation, it is the Council's intention to formally write to An Coimisiún after the consultation meeting seeking to formally conclude the consultation process. We would therefore be obliged if any relevant member of An Coimisiún's team that wishes to raise any particular issue might please attend next Thursday's consultation meeting so the matter can be understood and discussed.

Regards,
Gráinne
