In accordance with Section 182A of the Planning and Development Act 2000 (as amended), Herhata Limited gives notice that it proposes to seek the approval of An Coimisiún Pleanála for a ten year period for the proposed development described below located within the townland of Halverstown to the east of Naas, on the Caragh Road (R409), County Kildare. The application site has a total area of c. 3.15 hectares.

The Proposed Development comprises the provision of a new 110 kV Gas Insulated Switchgear (GIS) grid substation, the undergrounding of an existing 110kV transmission line, 1 no. droptown tower (maximum of 17m in height), removal of 2 no. existing wooden polesets and the upgrade of 1 no. existing tower, internal road layout, fencing, and utilities, along with associated and ancillary works (together, the "Substation").

* The proposed substation consists of construction of a two storey 110kV GIS grid substation control building (c. 15.5m in height) and with a gross internal floor area of c. 1,252sq.m), 4 no. 110kV dual output step down transformers (c. 5.7m in height) separated by isolators, and 4 No. medium voltage (MV) output switch rooms (each MV will be c. 5.7m in height and 84sq.m in area) for distribution to the site and connection to the on-site gas turbines and generators in each of 6 data centre buildings (which Data Centre was the subject of a separate application to Kildare County Council (KCC) (Ref: 24/60787), which is currently under consideration de novo by An Coimisiún Pleanála on appeal under case reference P109.323677), all within a 2.6m high fenced compound.

* The proposed underground 110kV cable circuit will run between the existing tower, the proposed 110kV GIS grid substation and the proposed line/cable (L/C) droptown tower. There are proposed upgrades to the existing tower to facilitate the underground 110kV cable. The proposed droptown tower will be a maximum of 17m in height, set on concrete foundations. The obsolete sections of the existing overhead 110kV lines between the existing tower and the proposed droptown tower, including the 2 no. existing wooden polesets, will be removed from the site.

* The development includes enabling works and services diversions: connections to the proposed grid substation; landscaping; security fencing and berms; provision of internal access arrangements within the grid substation compound and all associated construction and ancillary works.

- A data centre, comprising 6 no. two storey data centre buildings, an administration/management building, car parking, landscaping, energy infrastructure and other associated works (the "Data Centre"), located in the townlands of Halverstown, Ugginstown and Newmill. As mentioned above, the Data Centre is the subject of a separate application for planning permission that was submitted to KCC under Reg. Ref.: 2460787. KCC issued a decision to grant planning permission for the Data Centre on 20 August 2025, which decision to grant planning permission has been appealed to An Coimisiún Pleanála and is currently under de novo consideration by An Coimisiún Pleanála under case reference P109.323677. An EPA/Industrial Emissions Directive (IED) licence will be applied for to facilitate the operation of the Data Centre.

McILROY READY TO REIGN DOWN UNDER

By DENIS KIRWAN

RORY McIlroy is the star attraction at the Australian Open this week at Royal Melbourne Golf Club, which is one of the greatest golf courses on the planet.

It would be a great end to a momentous year if McIlroy could add another of the world's highest regarded courses to his list of 2025 successes.

The World No.2 (above) is 9/2 to win and considering he was 3/1 to win the recent DP World Tour Championship in Dubai against an arguably much deeper field, that looks a good value bet.

McIlroy ultimately had to settle for second place to Matt Fitzpatrick in Dubai but can go one better here.

Min Woo Lee is 16/1 to win his national Open for the first time. He's a hugely talented young player who comes in to this week's renewal is great form.

Last week's Australian PGA Championship winner, David Puig, is another player who has the game to win a Major in the near future.

Now playing on the LIV Tour, Puig joins fellow LIV stars Tom McElhin and Josele Balister to have landed a recent title on a different tour.

Puig put on a ball-striking masterclass to coast to two-shot victory at Royal
