Dear Irish Water,

I'm firmly of the view that we should not be taking water from the Shannon to the Dublin region. We should reduce leakage in the piping structure first. Then we should introduce water charges to bring down the high wastage we incur with free water. With these two moves, there should be no need for extra water from outside the Dublin region. It will also impact negatively on our efforts to achieve our climate change targets.

Thanks, Eric Conroy, 23 Sundrive Park, Kimmage, Dublin 12. D12 X3K7.
