Re: 10 year planning permission for a 110kV AIS electricity substation, an associated loop-in/loop out grid connection into an existing 110kV overhead transmission line and all associated infrastructure located in the townlands of Aglish and Currahaly, County Cork. (www.aglishsubstation.ie).

Dear Sir / Madam,

I have been asked by the Commission to refer to your online portal submission dated 16th April 2026, in which you intended on making an observation.

Article 217(4)(a) of the Planning and Development Regulations 2001, as amended, states that, without prejudice to Article 217(2)(b) a person who makes submissions or observations to the Commission in accordance with this section shall not be entitled to elaborate in writing upon the submissions or observations or make further submissions or observations in writing in relation to the application and any such elaboration, submissions or observations that is or are received by the Commission shall not be considered by it. In this regard, as an observation has already been received from you by the Commission in relation to the above case (dated 16th April 2026), it is regretted that your further submission cannot be accepted by the Commission.

The documents lodged by you are enclosed and a refund of €50 will be made to the credit/debit card used to make the online observation in due course.

Yours faithfully,

Niamh Hickey
