A Chara,

I refer to your correspondence of 25th June and 9th July 2026 respectively. Due to circumstances beyond our control in respect of specialist advisory services which are associated with the undertaking of a Site-Specific Flood Risk Assessment, required to satisfy the further information request set out, Wexford County Council respectfully requests a further extension to the deadline for submission of information until close of business on Friday 2nd October 2026.

I would be grateful if you could please advise on the request of same at your convenience.

Respectfully,

David Whitty
Executive Engineer
