Bessborough, Ballinure, Blackrock, Cork

Dear Comisiún Pleanála,

I, Genevieve Hennessy, of 35 Hermitage Road, Lucan, Co. Dublin, wish to strongly object to the request for planning permission by Cork County Council on the above named site. I believe that if it is granted, you will be allowing the trampling of evidence of the deaths of many of the 9,768 women and 8,938 children who passed through Bessborough which would be an abomination of the highest order. A proper search must be made to uncover the bodies of those who died there. This is so that a proper burial can take place for each and every woman and child who died there. The State owes it to them and their families following the sheer neglect of their duty to protect its citizens over the 76 years that Bessborough was allowed operate.

Kind regards,

Genevieve
