Hi Niamh,

Further to our telephone conversation earlier today, with respect to the clerical error on the Irish translation of the public notices, we have relayed to the client that there is no mechanism to submit revised public notices at this stage of the completeness check.

RWE have advised that they wish to formally withdraw the planning application File. Ref: 324308-26, on behalf of the clients, please find the formal letter of withdrawal attached.

It is intended that the planning application will be re-advertised and re-submitted to ACP next week.

Could you please advise on the procedure for re-submitting? As the only changes to be made are to the dates on the cover letters, application form, public notices and letters to prescribed bodies, we would hope that only these documents would need to be re-printed and re-submitted to ACP. When re-submitting we would hope that it is possible to swap out the old version of the revised documents and updated USB copies, at ACP offices. This would save on printing and courier expenses for all parties.

If you could advise, we would appreciate it.

Kind regards,

Donna.
