Ellen,

I can confirm that ESB do not require a meeting in relation to the SID screening application ACP-324418-26 for the proposed development of the Courtlough 110kV/38kV/MV Distribution Substation in the townland of Hedgestown, County Dublin.

Please proceed to determine the case as expeditiously as possible.

Kind Regards,

Janette McDonald | Planning and Environmental Team Lead | Networks Civil & Environmental Engineering | Engineering and Major Projects | ESB

Dear Madam,

I have been asked by An Coimisiún Pleanála to refer further to the above-mentioned pre-application consultation request submitted under section 182E of the Planning and Development Act 2000 as amended. In this regard, the Commission is now requesting that you indicate if you wish to have a pre-application consultation meeting with representatives of the Commission.

If you intend to have a meeting the Commission will revert to you in due course with the relevant details.

It should be noted that if you wish to seek an opinion on design flexibility as provided for under section 182G of the Act you may request a meeting as part of the consultations under section 182E. Any such request should be accompanied by the information as provided for under section 182F(2) of the Act.

If you do not require any meeting, the Commission will proceed to determine the case as expeditiously as possible.

If you have any further queries in relation to the above, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned officer of the Commission.

Yours faithfully,
Ellen Moss
Executive Officer
