Re: Consent to Apply for Planning Permission

Limerick City and County Council hereby consent to a planning application being submitted by Uisce Eireann on lands at Ballykeefe, Dock Road, Limerick some of which are currently in the ownership of the Limerick City & County Council.

This consent to apply for planning permission is strictly on the following terms:

1. This consent to apply for planning permission shall not be construed as an acknowledgment that planning permission will in due course be granted. It is a matter for the applicant to satisfy the relevant planning requirements of Limerick City and County Council and/or An Coimisiún Pleanála
2. The preparation of any such planning application and all associated costs are entirely a matter for the applicant.
3. The issue of any planning permission shall not form the basis of any binding contract with Limerick City and County Council.
4. The location of the lands in question is as per DWGUE/10015054-ROW-010-REV-01

Please note that this application for Consent to apply for Planning Permission is valid for a period of six months from date of this letter.

Yours sincerely,

Jayne Leahy,
Head of Property ,
Economic, Tourism, Culture, Property & Corporate Buildings Directorate
Limerick City & County Council.
