Re: Planning Application for repowering of the Barnesmore Windfarm and ancillary development to be developed on lands in Keadue, Cullionboy and Clogher, Co. Donegal

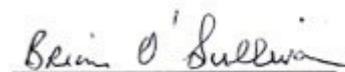

Dear Sir/Madam,

I, Brian O'Sullivan, can confirm that I am the legal owner of the lands (Folio No. DL5463) in relation to the townland of Cullionboy, County Donegal.

For the purposes of the repowering of the Operational Barnesmore Windfarm ("the Development"), Barnesmore, County Donegal and adjacent townlands, the associated grid connection works adjacent to Clogher Substation, and as may be required, I hereby give my consent to ScottishPower Renewables to lodge a planning application for the Development insofar as it relates to land in my ownership.

This permission does not give any rights over the land to access or undertake works, it merely allows a planning application to be lodged.

Kind Regards,

Brian O'Sullivan
