

APPENDIX 11

Cultural Heritage

- Appendix 11-1 - Photographic Record – John Cronin & Associates

Plate 11.1: View north-north-west of northern portion of the proposed development site showing sloping nature of lands within this area

Plate 11.3: View to north-east of sloping ground within central area of the proposed development site with modern dwelling outside the eastern site boundary visible in background

Plate 11.2: View of stream that flows (in a southerly direction) along the western boundary of the proposed development site which forms the townland boundary between Coolflugh and Dromin to the west

Plate 11.4: View towards the east end of the central area of the proposed development site. The public roadway is on the embankment in the background

Plate 11.5: View south towards area of level ground in the southern area of the proposed development site

Plate 11.7: View of public road extending along east side of proposed development site

Plate 11.6: View north of poorly drained, marshy, marginal land in the south end of the proposed development site