Dear Sir / Madam,

An Bord Pleanála has received your letter in which you intended to make an appeal under the Planning and Development Act, 2000, (as amended).

Section 127(1)(e) of the 2000 Act, (as amended), provides that an appeal must be accompanied by the acknowledgement by the planning authority of receipt of submissions or observations on the application. As your appeal was not accompanied by the said acknowledgement, it is regretted that it must be regarded as invalid in accordance with section 127(2)(a) of the Act. To lodge a valid appeal you must comply with ALL of the requirements of section 127.

You are reminded that the final date for the lodgement of a valid appeal is 4 weeks beginning on the day of the decision by the planning authority. In this case, the time period to lodge a valid appeal has expired.

Your attention is drawn to section 130 of the Act, which provides that any person other than a party may make submissions to the Board in relation to an appeal. The development is the subject of other valid appeals against the planning authority's decision. Your submissions can be considered provided they are submitted with a fee of €50 in accordance with section 130(1)(c)(v) of the Planning and Development Act 2000 (as amended). Your submissions must be lodged within the appropriate period for the making of observations. In this case the period is 4 weeks beginning on the day of receipt by the Board of the appeal. The Board received the last appeal on the 9th February, 2023.

Please note that the fee of €220 which you lodged will issue under separate cover, shortly. The appropriate documentation which you submitted is being returned to you to facilitate the submission of an observation with the correct fee. Should you intend submitting an observation to the Board, you must submit the required fee of €50 notwithstanding the fee refund which is currently pending from the Board's offices.

You should further note that if your observation does not conform with section 130 of the 2000 Act, including the submission of the observation fee, it will be deemed invalid.

The documents lodged by you are enclosed and a cheque for the money lodged will follow under separate cover.

Yours faithfully,

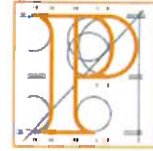

Aisling Reilly
