

RECEIVED: 01/03/2024

APPENDIX 13

RECEIVED: 01/03/2024

APPENDIX 13-1

Plate 1. Northern rectangular field, looking south –west.

Plate 2. Northern rectangular field looking north-east to adjacent industry that borders the site under review.

Plate 3. Smaller rectangular field to the south of larger rectangular field. Looking east from the location of vernacular buildings.

Plate 4. Modern shed with associated yard located at the centre of the northern field. Looking east.

Plate 5. The southern triangular field, looking south from location of vernacular buildings.

Plate 6. Single storey cottage representing the northern range of buildings depicted on the historic mapping. Slate roof has been removed and is overgrown with ivy.

Plate 7. The western range is represented by a stone-built barn with a slate roof and an arched entrance. Looking north-west.

Plate 8. Small square, two storey building shown on the late 19th century 25-inch scale OS map. Looking south-east. It is covered in ivy.

Plate 9. Small square-shaped building showing stone construction, external render, ground floor doorway and first floor window with a brick surround (blocked up).