

Plate 1: Western portion of the proposed development site, showing pasture land which was subject to archaeological testing, looking north-west

Plate 2: Western portion of the proposed development site, showing pasture adjoining scrubland at east, looking north

Plate 3: Western portion of the proposed development site, showing pasture adjoining Convent Hill (at left), looking west.

Plate 4: Northern extent of the western field adjacent to the stream corridor, looking east

Plate 5: Unnamed stream at the northern end of the proposed development site, looking east

Plate 6: Eastern portion of the proposed development site, showing regenerating scrub and evidence of previous disturbance, looking northeast.

Plate 7: Eastern section of the site characterised by rough grassland and scrub growth, looking east.

Plate 8: Dense overgrowth within the eastern portion of the proposed development site restricting ground visibility, looking north