(See part 6 – Supporting materials for more information.)

No infrastructure for strategic housing development on the Dublin Road and shikeen Road.

Primrose Gate has a risk of flooding due to the two river's going through the estate, which affects house owner's of getting flood risk insurance.

- There is not enough places for crèches and schools in celbridge as it is due to the population in celbridge it's also impossible to get GPS in celbridge as people have to travel to different locations.
- Traffic is absolutely chaotic in celbridge as it is and with new builds with impact travel even more.
- Donaghcumper graveyard where that extend to will it be located somewhere else.
- Natural wildlife what will happen to them as they will have nowhere to go, as their is alot around this area where they are proposing the development.
- With this 7 year plan it's going to cause construction dirt and noise.
- Looking to access a walk way into a private culture de sac, as primrose gate is a privately owned estate.

5. Grounds

- House owners from No.27 Willow Square to 43 Willow Square is going to be completely overlooked with no privacy at all and all the natural light will be really badly affected with the new developments.
