Good Afternoon Councillor,

No timeframe has been given to Eirgrid for the lodgement of the missing information.

The EU Regulation does, however, state [Article 10.1(b)] that the pre-application procedure should take place within an indicative period of 2 years. The Regulation at Article 10.2 does allow for the competent authority (An Bord Pleanála PCI Unit) to extend the overall PCI process (pre-application procedure and statutory permit granting procedure which should take place within an overall 3 years and six month) by 9 months on a case by case basis.

The PCI process commenced on 2nd July, 2014 when An Bord Pleanála acting as the competent authority acknowledged the notification from Eirgrid.

I will let you know when the missing information has been submitted.

Regards.
Diarmuid Collins.

Good Morning Councillor,

Eirgrid has not submitted the missing information. I am sorry to have to respond to certain questions by saying that I am not in a position to answer questions that are a matter for Eirgrid. Eirgrid had pre-application consultation discussions with An Bord Pleanála (Strategic Infrastructure Section) and those records and Inspector's report are available on the An Bord Pleanála website. It remains, however, a matter for Eirgrid to finalise its documentation and submit an application to An Bord Pleanála. The details of the application are a matter for Eirgrid to decide upon.

Regards,
Diarmuid Collins,
Senior Administrative Officer.

Diarmuid a Chara,

Hope you are well, just looking for any update you may have on the North south interconnector as discussed, and if Eirgrid have provided the missing information,

And also there has been some reports in the local press that Eirgrid may be considering the undergrounding of this project??

If you could confirm that this planning application ( when missing information is supplied to yourselves by Eirgrid ) will be for an over ground Pylon supported 400kv line,

I just want to keep the members of the council informed with the facts as you will understand,

Thanking you in advance

Noel
