My store is located on the lower Rathmines road

My store will be cut off from my customers that currently drive up and down the lower Rathmines road.

My delivers will be affected for access to the store.

Some of my staff will not be able to attend work as they live outside the area so they will seek employment elsewhere.

My family business will be compromised and my local staff members will be in jeopardy of losing their jobs due to fewer customers using my store therefore 15 people losing their jobs will be the result of such plans.

As it stands my store has not recovered after Covid due to the massive loss in footfall with offices not returning to the area and others reducing to two days a week.
