Re: Bray- Dublin City bus Corridor Scheme- Effects on Patrician Villas and Patrician Grove.

To Whom it may concern,

I wish to object to the Bray- Dublin City bus Corridor Scheme- Effects on Patrician Villas and Patrician Grove. I have many concerns with this new bus corridor and the effects and dangers it will impose on the surrounding area.

Dangers: The pedestrian access from the green space in front of the underpass that will directly go onto a busy dual carriageway. One of my concerns is that this can be dangerous to young children who could potentially run out in front of heavy traffic and cause serious injuries.

There is also a proposed ramp that could be used as a short cut by cyclists/scooter users this could cause accidents and collisions if any cyclist/scooter user entering Patrician Villas down the ramp and cyclist/ scooter users coming from the underpass at the same time. This could be particularly hazardous for children on bikes.

Taking into account the many concerns highlighted, I respectfully submit that this proposal be objected planning permission.

Yours sincerely,

Patricia
